

Admin Server

The Administrator Server of P-Rob contains a nice graphical user interface for the administrator of a robot to be able to specify some robot specific settings that are not directly myP related. This contains the following:

- an authentication system where the administrator can create users, create groups, and specify the access rights for each group
- users without administrator access can log-in to use myP and change their password
- the administrator can update myP and change network settings