

Home Interface

The Home Interface provides a web interface for easy user interaction and communication. On the one hand, it can show subtitles of what the robot is saying, vision streams displaying what the robot sees and other texts, videos and pictures defined in myP scripts. On the other hand, it allows prompting buttons which can be used to control the robot behavior or feed information.