

ROS Navigation

The ROS navigation module allows the mobile platform to drive in the mapped environment with collision avoidance. It uses the Open Source navigation stack of ROS and is configured, tuned and adjusted for our specific mobile platform. Further extensions include using 3D cameras to see obstacles above the plane covered by the laser, human leg detection and recovery behavior from being near obstacles.