

Service Robotics Module

The Service Robot Module manages service robot related information. It contains a database about users, their preferences and activity logs with the robot. With the Service Robot calendar the robot can be scheduled to start scripts and remind people about their appointments. Furthermore, this module provides a web interface for editing person information and the calendar as well as for showing camera streams and where the robot is on the map.